

Found in the heart of downtown, and featuring over 200 artists, TIX on the Square is the Edmonton Arts Council's shop and gallery! TIX offers a retail space for local artists ranging from emerging art & design students to established career artists.

Are you interested in your selling your work at TIX on the Square? Please review the FAQ (Frequently Asked Questions) below to determine if you and your products are a good fit for TIX:

Frequently Asked Questions

Do I need to live in Edmonton to be featured or to sell my work at TIX?

As TIX on the Square is owned and operated by the Edmonton Arts Council, yes, all TIX on the Square vendors must practice and reside here in the Greater/Metropolitan Edmonton Area.

Do my products or artwork need to be made in Edmonton? What is Edmonton-made?

We are proud supporters of artwork, products or collections made or designed in the Greater Edmonton Area. We understand that printing and other manufacturing may happen outside of Edmonton, however, all design elements must be your original work. No second-hand or resold items will be accepted. Upcycled items will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

What kinds of items are sold at TIX?

TIX on the Square currently represents:

- Visual artists (art prints, photography, greeting cards, postcards)
- Jewelers (necklaces, earrings, rings)
- Apparel designers (hats, t-shirts, sweatshirts)
- Ceramicists and Potters (dinnerware, vessels, decorative items)
- Soap-makers and bath & body product producers
- Woodworkers (bowls, serving boards, décor items)
- Home décor and industrial designers' work
- Authors, Poets (books, zines, anthologies magazines and similar)

We are not accepting new jewelers or original / one-off visual art (paintings, drawings or similar) at this time.

How will I be paid as a TIX artist?

TIX operates on a consignment basis, with a commission split of 70% to the artist, and 30% to TIX. Commission cheques are automatically issued monthly if a sales threshold is met.

What is expected of me as a TIX artist?

The TIX team takes pride in building and maintaining lasting relationships with our artist and arts-loving community. We strive to keep regular communication channels open with our 200+ local artists, designers and artisans regarding event opportunities, calls for participation and applicable news from the Edmonton Arts Council office. It is up to the artist to inform TIX of any changes to contact information, payment information, new collections available, etc. We also request to be featured as an authorized stockist on any of your applicable communication channels (website, social media, etc.)

How do I apply to be a new vendor?

Based on the information above, if you feel like you would be a great addition to the TIX roster, we encourage you to reach out to our team! In your message, please include a short biography, a description of your practice as well as 2-5 images of your work. Please this information via email to danny@tixonthesquare.ca and victoria@tixonthesquare.ca. Alternatively, call TIX at 780-420-1757 to schedule a meeting with our team.

November 1, 2021 Update: Please note that the TIX shop is not accepting new artists for the remainder of 2021. Our next intake period will begin in February 2022!